Alain d Woolf is one of South Africa's finest entertainers. An accomplished singer, comedian, impressionist, Alain has performed internationally through television, film, and live performances. His last international show was as a headliner [in Australia] at Fox Studios Sydney Comedy Store.

Apart from live cabaret performances for clubs and corporates local and international, Alain has been involved on both sides of the camera in movies, particularly in the Candid Camera genre. He wrote and directed 'You're in the Movies' and 'Funny Stuff'. Mazda commissioned Alain to produce write and direct 20 Candid Camera inserts for M-Net
